CEO's Message

Dear Loyal Subscriber,

Together, we are in a truly extraordinary situation. The global pandemic has affected all of our personal and professional lives. First and foremost, I hope you, your families, and your communities are safe.

After receiving feedback from many of our long-term and loyal subscribers, we have pointed out the areas of support and improvement regarding the services we offer. The following are the key takeaways and spaces that we have worked on.

- Active and on-time alerts on our Mobile app for the trade recommendations
- Continued commitment to your research queries and support
- A quick focus on service level and customer satisfaction
- Service charges for some of the derivative recommendations, especially for Stock Options, have been reduced to support and ensure every aspirant trader will be able to subscribe.

As our loyal subscriber, I wish you would benefit and grow your financial freedom.

Thanking you,

Santhosh Kumar V
